Let him haue time to teare his curled haire,
Let him haue time againſt himſelfe to raue,
Let him haue time of times helpe to diſpaire,
Let him haue time to liue a lothed ſlaue,
Let him haue time a beggers orts to craue,
And time to ſee one that by almes doth liue,
Diſdaine to him diſdained ſcraps to giue.

Let him haue time to ſee his friends his foes,
And merrie fooles to mocke at him reſort:
Let him haue time to marke how ſlow time goes
In time of ſorrow, and how ſwift and ſhort
His time offollie, and his time of ſport.
And euer let his vnrecalling crime
Haue time to waile th'abuſing of his time.

O time thou tutor both to good and bad,
Teach me to curſe him that thou taught'ſt this ill:
At his owne ſhadow let the theefe runne mad,
Himſelfe, himſelfe ſeeke euerie howre to kill,
Such wretched hãds ſuch wretched blood ſhuld ſpill.
For who ſo baſe would ſuch an office haue,
As ſclandrous deaths-man to ſo baſe a ſlaue.

The

The baſer is he comming from a King,
To ſhame his hope with deedes degen
The mightier man the mightier is the th
That makes him honord, or begets him
For greateſt ſcandall waits on greateſt
The Moone being clouded, preſent
But little ſtars may hide them when

The Crow may bath his coaleblacke wi
And vnperceau'd flie with the filth awa
But if the like the ſnow-white Swan deſi
The ſtaine vppon his ſiluer Downe will
Poore grooms are ſightles night, kings
Gnats are vnnoted whereſoere they
But Eagles gaz'd vppon with euerie

Out idle wordes, ſeruants to ſhallow fo
Vnprofitable ſounds, weake arbitrators
Buſie your ſelues in ſkill contending ſc
Debate where ley ſure ſerues with dull d
To trembling Clients be you mediators
For me, I force not argument a ſtraw
Since that my caſe is paſt the helpe o

H